Jeffrey brings nearly 25 years of experience to his role as the Practice Leader of the firm's international practice, Moore Doeren Mayhew, guiding multinational clientele through tax complexities to reach their financial goals.

Jeffrey delivers a comprehensive range of tax and consulting services tailored to businesses with globally mobile employees to optimize the annual expatriate life cycle. He is focused on ensuring that businesses, particularly those that are decentralized and entrepreneurial, benefit from efficient and centralized service delivery models.

Executives and high-net-worth individuals also rely on Jeffrey to provide instrumental tax compliance and planning services. His expertise spans working with clientele on domestic issues, as well as those with cross-border reporting and other foreign disclosure requirements. Drawing on his extensive background with the IRS voluntary disclosure program and streamlined filing procedures, clients can also depend on Jeffrey to provide guidance on U.S. expatriation planning and compliance issues.

Whether working with clients in the United States or across the globe, Jeffrey's leadership empowers businesses and individuals to rely on him to navigate international tax landscapes with confidence and precision, ensuring compliance and optimized financial outcomes.
