

Jennifer Sanderson

CPA / MST

PRINCIPAL

248.244.3259

sanderson@doeren.com

Bringing a public accounting career spanning over 25 years to her role, Jennifer specializes in providing tax compliance and advisory services to help her clients navigate the complex landscape of income taxation with confidence and precision.

Jennifer has served as a trusted CPA to a diverse range of closely held businesses and their owners throughout her entire career, assisting them meet their tax obligations and offering invaluable insights to optimize cash flow. Her intricate understanding of domestic tax regulations positions her as a trusted advisor to her clients related to filing requirements, entity selection, attribute retention and the impacts of flow-thru entities on related stakeholders.

An educator at heart and past Associate Professor at Walsh College, Jennifer shares her extensive tax and accounting knowledge as a leader in the firm's education program, providing training to clients and fellow professionals on a wide range of accounting and tax best practices.

Jennifer's experience, coupled with her dedication to education, makes her an asset in the field of taxation, benefiting both clients and professionals. Clients turn to Jennifer for her wealth of knowledge to help them make tax-smart decisions and provide them with customized tax-saving strategies to help meet their financial goals.

Education

- American University
 - M.S., Taxation
- Western Michigan University
 - B.B.A., Accountancy

Certifications

Certified Public Accountant (CPA)

Affiliations

- American Institute of CPAs
- Michigan Association of CPAs

Industry Specializations

Manufacturing

I find joy in the ongoing quest for knowledge, enabling my clients to thrive and actively contributing to their business and financial successes.